Washington, Dec. 13.—Charging that President Wilson was "perfectly immoveable" in urging ratification of the treaty of Versailles, Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the Republican leader, told the senate today that the President should present proposals for a compromise. He promised that the Republicans would give them careful consideration.

Washington, Dec. 13.—Frequent conferences between entente diplomats here have indicated that the governments might be prepared to accept some reservations to the peace treaty in order to accomplish its ratification in the senate and it is understood that only the illness of President Wilson has prevented him from being so advised by some of them.

It has not been made known here to what extent the entente powers might be prepared to go.

At present it may be stated that unless express instructions are received to the contrary, none of the entente representatives in Washington will take upon himself the responsibility of making a statement as to the willingness of his government to accept reservations lest he be charged with improper interference in the internal political situation.

PARIS SAYS CONCESSIONS LIKELY

Paris, Dec. 13.—As a result of the conferences being held at London by Premiers Lloyd George and Clemenceau, the American government will be notified that in order to facilitate compromise between adverse parties in the American senate, the allies are willing to accept, to as great an extent as possible, some of the reservations to the Versailles treaty made by the foreign relations committee, according to the Matin.

It is said the allies will do everything in their power to make it possible to participate in future conferences.

Important problems, the newspaper says will henceforth be settled by a council of the premiers of France, England and Italy. This council will meet sometimes in Paris and sometimes in London, and will examine principally Russian and Turkish problems.

In the presence of John W. Davis, United States ambassador to Great Britain, it is said, Premiers Clemenceau and Lloyd George assured Vittorio Scialoja, Italian foreign minister that there was a necessity for an early settlement of the Fiume problem and indicated England would intercede with the United States for Italy. Signor Scialoja will leave for Rome today to lay the matter before the government.

ITALY OPPOSED TO RUSS INTERVENTION

Rome, Friday, Dec. 12.—Premier Nitti declared in the chamber of deputies today that the Italian government does not favor intervention in the internal affairs of Russia. The premier's remarks were brought forth by a notable address made by Captain Guioletti, secretary of the Seamen's Federation and a socialist who was favorable to the Russian Bolsheviks.

Captain Guioletti, who was responsible with other officials for the diversion of the three Russian battleships over to the United States, was reprimanded for his remarks.

It was believed at the time of the Persia incident that the arms on board the ship were to be used against the Russian Bolsheviks.

NEW PROPOSAL WILL MAKE PACT ACCEPTABLE

London, Dec. 13.—John W. Davis, the American ambassador, late this afternoon visited Downing street where Premiers Lloyd George and Clemenceau and their advisers were in conference. It was reported that Ambassador Davis' presence was connected with proposals submitted by the conference to President Wilson yesterday which were said to render the peace treaty acceptable to general public opinion in the United States.

It was announced that Signor Scialoja had left for Italy. It was reported that his journey was for the purpose of consulting his government with reference to an allied proposal for the settlement of the Adriatic problem.

Vicount Clarendon, British ambassador, also was called into the conference before its conclusion.

SURRENDER KEYS TO REGULATOR.
Ashtabula, Dec. 13.—To allow a report that the Ashtabula Gas company is "juggling" the pressure at Ashtabula Harbor, Manager F. W. Stone, of the gas company today turned the keys of the three regulator houses over to a police official. Mr. Stone issued a formal order today prohibiting the use of natural gas in coal furnaces and under coal boilers. He is acting, he said, under authority of the public utilities commission of Ohio.

CLEVELAND THIEVES MAKE HAUL OF $21,000

Cleveland, Dec. 13.—Gem thieves last night maintained a loot valued at more than $21,000, and burglars robbed a tailoring company of $8,000 worth of woollen goods. Mrs. Margie Rockwell, of Buffalo, reported more than $9,000 worth of jewelry and $400 in liberty bonds stolen from her room at a prominent hotel shortly before midnight. She told police she believed she had been drugged. Mrs. William E. Collier reported a diamond-encrusted bracelet valued at $3500 was clipped from her arm at a dance at another hotel.

WOULD BOOST RATE ON LARGE PAPERS

Washington, Dec. 13.—Newspapers containing more than 24 pages would be charged five times the present postage rate under a bill introduced yesterday by Senator Jones, Democrat, New Mexico. The senator said publishers in his state, complained that only the big city papers with their own mills were able to obtain all the print paper they needed.

"Twenty-four pages give ample space for current news and advertisements," said Senator Jones.

RESTRICTIONS ARE REMOVED FROM COAL BY PLANTS

Complete Resumption of Manufacturing Is Expected Next Week.

LIGHT AND HEAT MAY BE RESTORED IN OFFICES

Preferred Classes Only Have Been Getting Fuel
This Week.

Washington, Dec. 13.—All industries may be supplied with coal for their emergency needs as far as coal is available in any section for the purpose of orders issued by the central coal committee. This order removed the restrictions which have denied coal to all industries except those in the five preferred classes.

The committee announced that companies must continue to make application to the roads which have been supplying them for coal. It is expected that the new order will result in almost complete resumption of manufacturing next week.

PLANTS ARE CLOSED.
Cincinnati, Dec. 13.—About 75 per cent of Cincinnati industries were closed today and approximately 500 men thrown out of employment when the municipal lighting plant discontinued power to factories on orders from the local fuel administrator who said the railroads would refuse to furnish the lighting plant any more coal unless discontinuance was made.

WHOLE TERRITORY INCLUDED.
New York, Dec. 13.—All restrictions on the use of bituminous coal in the eastern region comprising all territory east of Chicago and north of the Ohio river, were removed today by A. T. Harlan, regional fuel and railway director. Train service will be resumed virtually as usual Monday with the exception of the Twentieth Century Limited between New York and Chicago. Lights may be burned as usual.

USE OF COKE ALLOWED.
Pittsburgh, Pa., Dec. 13.—Fuel restrictions on light, heat and power in Pittsburgh were lifted today by the Pittsburgh committee of the United States railroad administration, on instructions from Walker D. Hines, director of railroads.

Light and elevator service in office buildings may resume today as usual and retail stores may remain open tonight if it is desired. Restrictions on the use of coke were removed also.

Reed of the regional coal committee. The orders will take effect at 12:01 o'clock Monday morning. The orders were sent to all public utilities and railroads in the region.

FREIGHT HOUSES CLOSE EARLIER

Both Railroad Freight Departments Adopt Eastern
Time to Open and Close,
Beginning at Once.

By adopting eastern time, the same time on which the railroads are operated. Newark's freight houses will close an hour earlier by the court clock than heretofore, it was announced today.

The hours will be from 7:30 a. m. eastern time to 4 p. m. eastern time for both Penna. and B. & O. sheds. The freight houses also close an hour earlier by the court clock than heretofore, it was announced today.

The change was made necessary, it was said because of the confusion arising from the fact that the trains operate on eastern time while the freight houses had been operated on central time.

The order is effective at once.

OLD COAL CONTRACTS TO REMAIN IN FORCE

Washington, Dec. 13.—Bituminous coal contracts providing that operators may add to the contract price the full amount of any increase in miners' wages will not be set aside in the case of the 14 per cent increase granted mine workers in the strike settlement, it was announced today.

All bituminous contracts entered into between operators and dealers before last October 30, were restored by the fuel administrator's order of November 12, after being set aside by the maximum price order of October 30 and now must operate as valid contracts under law. Mr. Harkness said.

He said the fifty per cent of the bituminous output was sold under those contracts.

He said the strike had been discussed, but would not disclose what the discussion had taken.

WHEN VOLUNTEER MINERS STARTED TO DIG COAL IN KANSAS

Volunteers digging strip coal near Pittsburg, Kan., and one of guards protecting them.

Volunteer miners, led into the Kansas coal mining districts by Governor Allen to relieve the suffering due to the coal shortage caused by the recent miners' strike, proved to be husters. The coal output of the first week was below the expectation of officials and the men themselves. The "amateurs" dug "strip" coal from surface veins. Federal troops protected them.

VILLA REBELS CAPTURE YANKS

Two Are Among Prisoners Taken By Troops Which Raided Mexican Town.

Eagle Pass, Texas, Dec. 13.—Two Americans and an Englishman are reported among the men taken by Villistas in the raid last Tuesday on Muzquiz, state of Coahuila, and who are now held for ransom.

The Americans reported held by the bandits were R. B. Ransom, representing the Texas Lumber company and Fred G. Hugo, manager of the J. M. Dobbs ranch. One unconfirmed report says the Englishman whose name was not given had been released.

Advices received here today said eight Mexicans also were held for ransom. Ten thousand dollars each, it was reported, was demanded for release of the American and the Englishman and five thousand dollars each for the Mexicans.

ARMY STORE HAS GOOD TRADE ON FRIDAY

The army store in West Main street had nearly 400 customers yesterday and Mayor Atherton had not totaled the day's receipts owing to the fact that he was in Zanesville last evening. Receipts probably exceeded $1,000, the mayor said.

The store opened for business this morning at 9 o'clock and while the rush was not as large as yesterday there was a constant line of customers all day. The store will be kept open Monday. Mayor Atherton hopes that the entire stock will be disposed of by that time in order that the expense of conducting the sale will be discontinued, as only a 10 per cent margin is allowed by the government for expenses.

When Mayor Atherton planned for the army store he did so on the basis of car loads of goods which had been promised him and only one was sent, and that mostly canned goods. The expense is just the same as if the three cars had been received, and the 10 per cent margin had hardly paid the expense, the mayor said.

There is still plenty of canned pork and beans, tomatoes, corned beef, farin, cinnamon and tea, four varieties of the latter.

PACKING FIRM IS FINED $2841 FOR FOOD VIOLATION

Ignored Smith Cold Storage Law, Was Charged In Affidavit.

HELD MEAT IN COOLER LONGER THAN PERMITTED

Defendants Pleaded Guilty
After High Court Gave Decision.

Columbus, Dec. 13.—Fines aggregating $2,841.25 were assessed against four officials and employees of the Columbus Packing company in the local police court today after they had pleaded guilty to charges of violating the Smith cold storage laws.

The arrests grew out of the crusade against food profiteering last July. The charges against the men were selling meat which had been held in storage longer than the maximum time limit allowed by the cold storage law.

The cases had been held in abeyance pending a decision of the state supreme court in the Theodore Leonard case. The court's fine of $500 assessed against Leonard was upheld by the supreme tribunal.

The men pleading guilty today and against whom the fines were assessed were Joseph Deibel, general manager of the Columbus Packing company; Owen P. Lamb, secretary and Alfred Grimm and Louis Herkenroder, salesmen. They were charged with selling meat against the defendants.

UTICA ROADS TO GET ATTENTION

County Officials Say Property Owners Could Not Agree Which Caused Delay—State and Federal Aid Promised.

This week's issue of the Utica Herald contained an article complaining of the partially shown certain sections of the county by the commissioners in the matter of improving roads, to the detriment of the village of Utica and Washington township, which it claimed had been badly neglected. The article closes by stating "already it is seen that the extra two-mill levy we voted for is being pledged to distant parts of the county, where Utica people seldom travel, and in a section which has political nests and has more improved roads than any other section away from the county seat."

Regarding the complaint of the two-mill levy, it was said in the article that Washington township has not petitioned for a single rod of improvements under that levy and when they do they will receive their share of the levy. Residents of Monroe township came before the board and petitioned for improvements and it was allowed by the commissioners to the amount of that township residents will receive the same treatment.

The article complains of the main market road leading from this city to Utica. It was said that "improvement was made to have this road better made but without success, not due, however, to the officials, it is claimed, but due to the fact that property owners could not agree as to material and would not sign for any road in the township. They pay a share of the cost and no one cared to start mandatory proceedings."

The improvement is now under way. Only about two miles of it has been completed. The distance between this city and Utica is 13 miles and the greater part of that work will be finished by the coming summer. Plans are now under way to make a part of that road way one of the best roads in the state of Ohio. Federal aid may be granted and if it is, which in all probability will be done, the Utica will have a thoroughfare equal to any road in the country and second to none, for it is said that a part of it at least will be laid with asphaltum.

SOLDIERS' BAGGAGE WILL BE DELIVERED

New York, Dec. 13.—Thousands of soldiers' trunks containing souvenirs which their owners wished to give as Christmas presents but which were "lost" in the confusion of the return from Europe, will reach their destinations before the holidays as a result of the efforts of the Knights of Columbus lost baggage department.

Working in conjunction with army authorities, the Knights yesterday alone shipped 1000 trunks and other pieces of baggage, almost all of which, their owners wrote, contained intended Christmas presents.

Approximately 150,000 pieces of soldier baggage are stored at army piers in Hoboken awaiting word from their owners.

26TH DIV. VETS KICK ON EDWARDS' BOOST

Boston, Dec. 13.—Veterans of the 26th division commanded overseas by Major General Clarence R. Edwards, met today to discuss the proposed resolution of protest against confirmation by the senate of the promotion of Brigadier General Kernan, Dickman and Harbord to the rank of major general. In making their appointments, the resolution said, "the war department has jumped the former commander of the 26th division and consequently has cast a slur on the established reputation of the division."

Major Edwards was now a commander of the northeastern department with temporary rank.

MAN CAUGHT IN CANTON FOR LOCAL CHECK JOB

After following the trail of Harry Richardson for several weeks, wanted in this city on a forgery charge, Police Chief James Sheridan finally succeeded in locating his quarry in Canton, and he was ordered locked up to await the arrival of Chief Sheridan who will leave for that city either tomorrow or Monday morning.

Richardson, who is about 27 years of age, was locked up in the city prison on several previous occasions on a charge of absconding himself from an army camp without leave. He has a wife and two children in this city.

On October 29th he passed a check at the Star Grocery calling for $60.56. Later he passed another check on Mary J. Toose, a storekeeper on North End, for the sum of $5.60. He succeeded in eluding the officers who were sent to look him up and a week ago Chief Sheridan traced him to Canton and succeeded in locating him there at the home of a woman, where he was alleged to be living. Later it was learned that the prisoner had not gotten very far away and was again in the custody of the Knox county sheriff. The officer arrived in Newark with his prisoner early this morning. Police Chief Sheridan went to the Pennsylvania depot and accompanied the officers to the B. & O. depot where they took a train for Mt. Vernon.

GOVERNMENT IS BLAMED FOR HIGH SUGAR PRICES

Columbus, Dec. 13.—That the government's failure to negotiate for the Cuban sugar crop in July is responsible for the buying up of Cuban sugar by speculators at unparalleled prices for January and February deliveries was the charge made by several Columbus jobbers yesterday.

By the time this sugar is taken to Eastern ports, refined there, and sent to the interior it will mean higher prices than ever have been paid for the Cuban product. Contracts for January delivery are being made on the basis of 11 cents a pound, f. o. b., seaboard. This will mean 14 cents to the retailer, who has never paid more than 10 cents in January.

Many so called "operators" referred to by local jobbers as speculators, refuse to make contracts for January delivery, unless like amounts for February and March delivery are ordered.

Most Sociable of Birds.

The house wren is one of the most sociable and confiding of birds, and on this account wrens will build their nest in little houses that are built for them, no matter how close they are to a human habitation, says American Forestry association. Washington has a bird house building contest that is arousing widespread interest among school children throughout the nation in bird life and preservation. Furthermore, the wren is one of the most valuable of birds, for it feeds on insects and thus helps to save the trees and the vegetables in the garden from the pests which would eat them. The wren builds its nest of grass or weeds, stuffed into any crevice that takes its fancy.

Obedience.

Cheerful obedience is a real tonic to the spirits of all the company. Small souls are easily defeated; small souls living for self are unable to think first of the good of the crowd and early add the tiresome burden of their complaint. The one who has not the ability to turn the inevitable annoyances of the mountain trip into jollity has no place in a party of climbers.—By Robert S. Carroll.

MAY NOT KNOW PAGO PAGO

Yet Town on Island of Tutuila, in American Samoa, is Worth Attention of Tourists.

Pago Pago, on the island of Tutuila in American Samoa, would probably be an easy winner in competition for the least-known town of its size under the American flag.

Most Americans never heard of Pago Pago; yet it has an excellent harbor, is an important naval coaling station, and is governed by American naval officers.

The island of Tutuila is one of six little tropical atolls which constitute American Samoa. They are all mountainous and are picturesque with their jungle-covered steep slopes and their great palm groves sheltering little white native towns.

These natives are a peculiarly attractive people, as any American Jackie who has spent a while at Pago Pago will tell you. They are kindly, hospitable, and full of fun, while some of the women, especially the half-castes, are really beautiful.

The favorite native diversion, strangely enough, is cricket, which was taught the Samoans by British missionaries long ago, and has well nigh supplanted all the really indigenous sports. But the Samoan has made of cricket a thing after his own barbaric heart. He plays with 40 or 50 men on a side, so that a grand scrimmage is inevitable; he roots with tom-tom and with intense excitement; and the winners always perform a "serpentine," which has all the characteristics of a savage war dance.

TURN TO PRIVATE CURRENCY

People of Siberia Satisfied With the Trade Checks That the Merchants Have Issued.

Private trade-checks, issued by firms and wealthy individuals, have largely replaced the national currency in Siberia. The ruble—in any form outside the metal disk—is too unstable to be accounted of real value and the workman who finds himself with pockets full of "Omisk" or "Kerensky" currency need hold no fear of being considered a plutocrat. For the ruble, up to a few months ago worth half a dollar in exchange, has diminished to somewhat less than four cents, face value. True, the green paper variety labeled "Kerensky" commands a higher premium than do the yellow-backed bills of Omisk; true, again, the tender of the former is worth more than either of the two aforementioned. But for all practical purposes the people of Vladivostok receive and demand—quite as a matter of course—the quaint slips issued by their tradesmen. Enterprise on the part of the merchants, it may be observed, keeps pace with the times; for example, one Vladivostok restaurateur has had his checks made to read: "American Grill. Two Rubles. Not Good for Ever."

Swordfish a Fathead.
It surely would be imprudent to address that formidable creature, the swordfish as Fathead, yet the term would be quite appropriate.

The heads of one hundred average swordfish will yield sixty-five gallons of an oil that has high market value. Refined and sun bleached, it is indistinguishable from whale oil, and fetches the same price. In fact, commercially, it is whale oil.

Whale oil is obtained on a much larger scale from halibut heads, which are treated in the same way as the swordfish heads—i. e., cooked to a pulp with steam and pressed. A short ton of them will yield forty gallons of oil. Boston and Gloucester (Mass.) annually produce twelve thousand gallons of refined whale oil from halibut heads.

Away back in the '70s somebody discovered that salmon heads were rich in oil, and since then the production of it has been a considerable industry in connection with the Pacific salmon fishery. By 1895 the annual output had risen to fifty thousand gallons.

His Identity.

"I see you have a new professional man in town," said the picture enlarger, who visited the hamlet sufficiently often to be mildly interested in the happenings thereof. "I noticed the sign, J. W. Bloor, O. D., M. T. D., D. C'. What is he practicing, anyhow—logomachy?"

"Nope; economy and eye doctoring," replied the landlord of the Petunia tavern.—Kansas City Star.

Canada's Fuel Resources.

The fuel resources of Canada are situated in the extreme east and west and the western part of Alberta; the lignite coals are situated in the provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan, but lying between the limits of these deposits is a great stretch of territory devoid of coal measure of economic value. The 12,000 square miles of peat bogs are situated in this area.

Refused to Make Money.

"Have we any currency left?" asked the bolshevist premier.
"Not enough to paper one small room," replied the minister of finance, with a bolshevistic snicker.
"Then we'd better print some more."
"That's what I think, but the printers refuse to lift a hand until we pay them off in real money."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

PICKS COMMITTEE FOR H. S. CONTEST

Denison Selects Faculty members to Take Charge of Oratorical Contest in Ohio High Schools.

(Special to the Advocate.)
Granville, Dec. 13.—The appointment of a faculty committee to take charge of arrangements for the Denison oratorical contest for high school students throughout Ohio, has just been announced by the university. With the coming week plans will begin to take final form. The personnel of the committee is as follows: Professor Bunyan Spencer, Dr. T. A. Lewis, Rowland Sheets (alumni secretary) and Professor C. H. Dickerman (publicity). Professor Dickerman will be chairman, and John Lechner, of the junior class will act as secretary ex-officio.

Already large numbers of letters have been received from principals of high schools, school superintendents and alumni of the university active in school work throughout the state. In many cases high school buildings have been offered for contest tryouts. The idea has undoubtedly "caught on," and the offer of three free scholarships, or their equivalent in money prizes, may be counted on to stimulate hundreds of Ohio high school boys and girls to the best efforts in oratory.

The annual program of Christmas music was presented by the Women's Music club Wednesday afternoon in the community rooms before a large company of active members, associates and guests. The arrangement of the carols and songs on the year book was in itself a work of art, but the performance had to conform to the arrival of the men singers who consented to assist in the past songs, Messrs. W. P. Ullman and M. E. Stickney, tenor, and W. C. Ebaugh and Bernard Adams, bass. Mrs. C. E. White, who was in charge of the music, stated that all of the songs were very old, some of them of immortal fame, and her talk not only broadened the understanding but deepened the appreciation of the musical numbers, which consisted of choruses, a six-part song, a quartet, trios, duets, and a solo, the performance including nearly all of the club vocalists, with Mrs. White and Mrs. Ashton as accompanists. The program as arranged was:

Sweetinck, "Hodie Christus Natus Est"; Calvishus, "Joseph, Tender Joseph Mine"; "Draw Nigh, Immanuel"; Gevaert, "Nusette";

Saint-Saens, "Tantum Ergo"; Franck, "La Vierge a la Croche"; Old English Carols, "Joys Seren"; "What Child Is This?";

Old Spanish Nativity Song, "The Three Kings";

Old French Carols, "Here in This Very Town"; "Noel of the Bressan Waits"; "Shepherds, Leave Your Flocks"; "One Wintry Night";

In the absence of the president, Mrs. C. W. Chamberlain, the vice president, Mrs. M. E. Stickney, just returned from the east, presided and delivered messages of greeting from former members now residing in New York:

Mrs. R. S. Colwell, Miss Rosa Kerr and Mrs. W. H. Johnson. Names registered in the guest book were: Mrs. Walter Noyes, Mrs. F. P. Leithman, Miss Belle Larimore, Outville, Mrs. Harry Doane, Newark; Mrs. Anna Jones, Washington C. H.; Miss Mollie Jones, Miss Ethel Jones, Mrs. W. B. Clemens, Mrs. Forbes Wiley, Mrs. C. E. Frank, Mrs. Fred Buxton, Mrs. Parish, Mrs. H. G. Scheidt, Miss Amelia Ean-croft, Mrs. Charles Robinson, Mrs. Carrie Devenney, Miss Thompson, Mrs. T. F. Chambers, Mrs. A. K. Herick.

The Phi sorority held its Christmas party Friday evening in the chapter house with 40 in attendance. There was a beautifully decorated tree with a gift for everybody which was presented by a magnificent Santa Claus present in person, with bells and accompanied by Mrs. Santa beloved of the chapter. The evening was spent in cheerful play, children's games and those hallowed by association, and during the evening dainty refreshments were served. The patron saints were impersonated by Prof. and Mrs. Theodore Johnson in realistic fashion.

The King's Daughters have 13,000 Red Cross seals to sell during their drive and they are accomplishing satisfactory results at their booth in the postoffice lobby. On Wednesday Miss Sarah Evans was in charge, assisted by Mrs. Joe Rodes; Thursday, Mrs. Heck, Mrs. M. M. Shoemaker and Mrs. Ernest Shephardson; on Friday, Mrs. H. G. Scheidt, Mrs. Frisig and John Thomas; today, Mrs. McLaughlin and assistants.

Phi Gamma Delta entertained at the chapter house Friday evening with a smoker. "Easts" were served in the dining room, where the guests were addressed by President Chamberlain on the new scientific theory of "The Relativity of Matter," which has discovered that Sir Isaac Newton's theory of gravitation is all wrong, that there is no such thing as "the ether."

The Messiah will be presented Sunday afternoon in the Baptist church at 2:45 o'clock by chorus of nearly 100. Howard Gordon Bennett is the conductor and Miss Fannie Judson Farrar, organist. The soprano soloists are Mrs. T. S. Johnson, Mrs. J. W. Rohrer, the contralto Miss Ida Mad-dock, tenor, Carl Fahl; bass and baritone, Prof. B. P. Johnston and K. L. Ullman. The concert is given under the auspices of the Denison conservation Granville Festival association, and the Engverson Choral society.

ARTIST SINGS WITH RE-CREATED VOICE

A capacity audience saw and heard the demonstration of the Edison RE-Created Voice at the High School auditorium, when an Edison artist, Glen Ellison, sang in unison with his own records.

The concert was arranged by Stewart Brothers & Alward and is planned to show the perfect tones reproduced by an Edison machine, well balanced and delightfully rendered a program was presented. At times Mr. Ellison sang with the instrument, and when he stopped singing it was possible to discern it only when one noticed his lips not moving.

A darkened stage, leaving to the ear of the audience whether it was the singing or the re-created voice, was a part of the entertainment. Mr. Ellison was assisted by Miss Richter.

NAZARENE CHURCH PLANS DEDICATION

The Church of the Nazarene will dedicate their church on Elmwood avenue Sunday, December 21. Rev. E. E. Wordsworth, the district superintendent will preach the dedicatory sermon in the afternoon at 2:30. Other services will be in the morning at 10:30 and evening at 7. The Nazarene church at the time of the death of the founder, Dr. Bresee had grown to larger proportions than the Methodist church at the time of the death of its founder, John Wesley, it is claimed.

There are at present over 25,000 Nazarenes in the United States. There are now 36 districts and an average of not less than 20 churches in each district. In the last year there were new churches built and organized at the rate of one every three days. The church of the Nazarene has 24 mission stations in the foreign field with about 5,000 foreign children in the Sunday school.

The church urges tithing as the only scriptural method of supporting God's work. At the last general assembly held in Kansas City in September, $1,000,000 was pledged for missions.

In the Newark church of the Nazarene in the last seven months, since the beginning of the assembly year in May, the collections for all purposes, except the purchase of the church has been an average of over $30 per member or $1 per Sunday.

Last night's audience mystified

Tries vainly to detect difference between voice of famous baritone and RE-CREATIONS by Edison's new phonograph

Those present at the High School Auditorium last night saw Glen Ellison walk onto the stage. They saw him take his position next to a beautiful cabinet. They saw his lips give voice to the opening lines of Roaming In The Gloaming. Then suddenly his lips were still—but the song kept flowing on.

How came this? They were hearing Mr. Ellison's voice, yet Mr. Ellison was not singing. The entire audience gasped as it slowly realized that it had been unable to distinguish between Mr. Ellison's voice and the RE-CREATION of that voice by the New Edison.

This was the daring test undertaken last night at the High School Auditorium by Thomas A. Edison. He sought to prove that no difference exists between the voice of the living artist and its RE-CREATION by the New Edison. The musically cultured of Newark were invited to pass judgment. No test could have been more exacting.

Glen Ellison made comparison after comparison. The mystified audience tried vainly to catch a difference between the original rendition and its RE-CREATION by the New Edison. No one could tell one from the other.

It was a triumph whole and complete for the New Edison.

The NEW EDISON

"the phonograph with a soul"

The instrument used in last night's Tone-Test is the regular model which sells for $295 (in Canada $431). It is an exact duplicate of the Laboratory Model which Mr. Edison perfected after spending Three Million Dollars in experiments. The New Edison alone of all phonographs is capable of sustaining this test. Until Mr. Edison knew it would do so, he regarded his work as unfinished.

Ask some one who was present last night. Learn the amazing truth. Then come in and let us prove it personally to you.

CASHING IN ON AMERICA.

Many aliens employed in the steel and coal industries have taken occasion of the existing strikes to cash up on their earnings in America, and return to the old country. A dispatch from Bridgeport, Ohio, for instance, says that 15 miners leaving for the old country carry home an average of $3,000 apiece.

The sympathy of the public is asked for the miserable conditions in which many alien workers live. But many of them prefer to live in a squalid way, so as to save money to take back to Europe. On $3,000 they could live like lords in peasant surroundings all the rest of their days.

In many places facilities for learning English have been offered these people, but they are not interested. They do not expect to settle down here. So why should they bother? These people may render faithful service and give an industrial equivalent for their money. But if they maintain squalid surroundings, they disfigure the places where they live, and their unsanitary conditions are often a health menace. They are easily subjected to the incitements of radical agitators.

A great deal can be said in favor of the proposition that aliens who refuse to learn the English language, or who are unable to do so, should be deported within a reasonable period, say five years.

The country can not find the puny of sentiment that it needs, so long as so many aliens regard this country as a gold mine, to be worked and the proceeds carried home. Fortunately the majority of these people of foreign birth have learned better. They know that America is the freest and most prosperous land on earth. All they ask is the opportunity to fit themselves for good citizenship. It should be freely given them.

The people who are raising prices to discourage orders that they can't fill, will not have to make much effort to discourage business when conditions return to normal.

Formerly people threw away their shoes when they began to wrinkle. At present prices they discard 'em when the stockings get too conspicuous through the holes.

Latest news from Washington is that it will undoubtedly be possible to rent the White House for the next four years without putting a 'To Let' ad in the papers.

If you can't find pleasure in the sight of a prettily trimmed Christmas tree, it is high time to have your name proposed for membership in the Old Folks Association.

The "Reds" who are being sent to Europe, should clearly understand that this trip is not awarded to them as the result of winning any popularity contest.

One practical use to make of all these Red Cross Christmas seals now being purchased, would be to seal up the lips of a lot of people.

Why is it that Little Johnny is never known to beat his Christmas drum while the family are out of the house?

Long lists of visitors of automobile laws reported. It might be a shorter job to make a list of the non-violators.

The old man shows a splendid appreciation of the gifts the kids bring him with his own money.

The junk business can always be depended upon to look up after Christmas.

Married Strangers

XXIV.—A Startling Discovery.

Keitha trailed forlornly into her bedroom. She was a trifle surprised at her own disappointment. Bennett had never changed their plans in such summary manner before, and the curt little note had not soitten the hurt of the broken engagement.

"How nice of you, Keitha," she replied gratefully. "But unfortunately, Lester is not home. He left a note saying he had a business engagement and I dare say it will detain him all evening."

"All the better," said Cecilia promptly. "You come with us and we'll ask Ben Cameron to make a foursome. Join us here as soon as you can and we'll dine at Maurice's first."

Keitha accepted eagerly, and sped away to dress. She wore the green gown with its silvery tulle drapery and she thrust a gleaming comb into her coppery hair. "Not so bad, my dear," she said, viewing herself in the mirror with satisfaction. "Not so bad."

She caught herself wishing Bennett might see her and shrugged away the thought.

Cecilia and her husband and good-looking Ben Cameron, who had been something of an old beau of Keitha's were waiting in the little drawing room at Maurice's apartment.

"Ben thinks it was nice of Les not to be home tonight," said Cecilia mischievously. "He had another engagement, but he broke it just like that," snapping his fingers before the disgruntled Mr. Cameron. "Didn't you, Ben?"

Modern childhood is sophisticated. While you are telling the sweet old Santa myth, your youngsters will probably inform you that that ancient fake has long since been exploded. The modern kid is a rationalist, and he long since compared Santa's picture with the diminutive modern chimney.

Modern youth is supposed to be more critical and demanding than the fathers were at the same age. Instead of the pearl handled jackknife that looked so glorious to his progenitor, he may demand a tin automobile that will chug all over the back yard.

But unless a child has been spoiled, it should not take a great deal to make him happy. The little tree with the lighted candles and bright ornaments in the simple home, usually brings more merriment than the costly toys in the palaces of the wealthy. The happiest ones' Christmas day are the grown-ups, who find the years slipping off their shoulders as they romp with the kids.

If they have left over any of those distinguished Service Crosses and what one lady called the "Croy de gerry," they might well pin 'em on the many forms of the volunteer coal miners.

As every census always shows more men than women, it is evident that American life is an example of minority rule.

OHIO FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

State Executive Board's Work.
Many important matters were taken up at last week's executive board meeting of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs in Columbus. Among the items of the hearty endorsement of child welfare work.

A well rounded program for child welfare work includes health, education, recreation, child labor, dependency and delinquency. There must be an educational line through the promotion of educational drives, such as census of children, birth registration studies, weighing and measuring tests, increased interest in the juvenile court and the administration of mothers' pensions.

It is hoped that every federation, and every club will have a welfare department this year to cooperate with the other agencies of city and county.

The executive board endorsed the Hughes law which created aid from the federation's scholarship fund to educate public health nurses. It endorsed a movement for the federation to urge the Ohio general assembly to establish without delay the state institution now needed as never before for the feeble minded.

Mrs. W. H. Sharp, Columbus, state federation president, told the executive committee that the slogan for this year of the federation should be "A Federated Club in Every Town and City in Ohio."

Every city and town having a federation should make a strong effort to "bring into the fold" at least one club from each of the surrounding small towns. Any club desiring full inclusion can get it by writing to her district vice president or to Mrs. W. L. Whitacre, state federation corresponding secretary, No. 199 Fifteenth avenue, Columbus.

District Conventions.
The state executive board decreed that district conventions next spring should last one and one-half days instead of one day as in the past. A one-day session was not thought to be long enough for the proper discussion of business, hearing of reports, etc., not to mention the social features.

Time and place for holding district conventions and the district vice presidents follow:
March 22-23, Lancaster, Central; Miss Helen Brown, Cochocton, vice president.
March 25-26, Portsmouth, Southeast; Mrs. F. A. Sosman, vice president, Chillicothe.

April 6-7, Kenton, Middle West; Mrs. Allen Marshall, vice president, Findlay.
April 9-10, Eaton, Southwest; George D. Antrim, vice president, Dayton.

April 13-14, Bellaire, Middle East; Mrs. C. W. Hixson, vice president, Cambridge.
April 16-17, East Liverpool, North-east; Mrs. Hermine Z. Hanson, vice president, Akron.

The Middle North district convention will be held at Sandusky and the Northwest district convention at the finance, the dates to be announced later. Mrs. Charles Hatter of Fremont is vice president of the Middle North district and Mrs. Charles Hess of Port-town is vice president of the Northwest district.

CHILDREN

David Starr Jordan says:
"There is nothing in all the world so important as little children. Nothing so interesting. If you wish to go in for philanthropy, if ever you wish to be of any use in the world, do something for little children. If ever you yearn to be truly wise, study children. We can dress the sore, bandage the wound, hapless the criminal, heal the sick and bury the dead, but there is always a chance that we can save the child. If the great army of philanthropists ever exterminates sin and pestilence, ever work out the race's salvation, it will be because a little child has led them."

Says Husband Is Unfaithful.
Charging that her husband is fond of the company of other women and that he frequently leaves home for months at a time, accompanied by a young companion, Maria A. Mathes, through her attorney B. G. Smythe, has filed a petition in common pleas court against Adolph F. C. Anthes.

The petition recites that they were married September 24, 1900, and that for the past three years and longer the defendant has been an habitual drunkard, and that a separation occurred July 3 last. She alleges that she has been compelled to earn her own living and that on July 28 last, defendant assaulted and calmed in vile and indecent manner and ordered her to leave. She asks for a divorce and restoration to her former name of Martha A. Baker.

Milady's Boudoir

Ancient Beauty Culture.
One of the instruments used by the professional beauty culturists is the face mask, whole or partial. It is to be worn during sleep as a preventive of wrinkles. It is of kid or rubber with an aperture for the eyes, nostrils and mouth. A similar apparatus, under a different form, was well known to the ancients, and barbaric times intervening did not allow it to be forgotten.

Beauties of the Renaissance period took it up, and we find that Margaret Valdez, the great queen Margaret, wore a mask at night in order to preserve her beauty. We read also that her husband, Henry IV, objected to it. After she was divorced from him, and when Marie de Medici had taken her place, she continued her practice.

Probably as this royal Marguerite was not only a coquette when young, but lived to be a very old coquette, she was very careful of what she did to keep young and beautiful. But she was largely into the system of the old time seekers after beauty, but these baths consisted rarely of just water.

Ingredients were put into them which are supposed to have had a more or less marvelous effect on the skin. There is nothing new in this practice as carried on now, any more than in the mask method. Roman ladies, under the Caesars, bathed in waters reedent with costly perfumes and scented oils. Some bathed in milk of asses diluted with water. Nero's wife used to sleep with a compress of this milk on her cheeks, such was the belief in its beautifying powers.

Our Boys and Girls

A court plaster case can be made easily by a child of heavy water color paper. A piece two inches wide by six inches long will serve for the slip on which the court plaster is to be fastened. The upper part of this is cut into the shape of a petal of some flower, for instance that of a poppy.

Another piece of paper four and a half inches wide by five and a fourth inches long will make the case itself. This piece should be creased lengthwise into three sections; the middle section being two inches wide and the two outer sections being each one and a fourth inches wide. The two outer sections should be bent back and pasted together, and the rounded tab at the bottom folded over them and pasted like the flap of an envelope.

The slip with the court plaster should then be put inside of the case and a flower painted at the top, one half of the flower being on the slip and the other half on the case. These last may be painted green and outlined with red. A background of gold improves the effect of the whole if the flower is bright in color.

WOMEN SEND QUESTIONS ON HIGH LIVING COSTS

St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 13.—One hundred and fifty representatives of St. Louis women organizations, who met here recently to devise ways in which they could combat the mounting cost of living, compiled a list of questions which have been forwarded to the President, the Governor of Missouri, congress, the department of justice and the American Federation of Labor.

Among the questions are:

"Why are prices fixed by 'fair price' organizations sometimes higher than those being charged in stores?"

"Why is beef 55 cents a pound and going higher?"

"Why is sliced ham 90 cents a pound?"

"Why has tenderloin of beef advanced so greatly?"

"Why are landlords being permitted to use the brutal forces of eviction when there are no places for the evicted persons to reside?"

"Does the wholesaler sell at a higher price to permit the retailer to sell at a higher price?"

"Why does not the American Federation of Labor pay as much attention to reducing prices as it does to increasing wages?"

Affidavits, specifying names and places, tending to prove that conditions exist as indicated in the questions, were enclosed in the letters.

ing but Alexander Johnstone, the author and owner of the company could have improved the cast by the addition of a few strong voices. The dancing specialties were good and sharing honors with Carle was Libushila and Gertrude Alexander. The fact that four members of the chorus left the company this week possibly weakened the production, but it is not an easy task, to play to empty seats, and that was the case last night for there was not a half a house on the lower floor.

"Turn to the Right," described as a comedy of peace blossoms and village belles, will be presented at the Auditorium tonight with John Golden's original production exactly as it ran for a solid year each at the Gaiety theater, New York, and George M. Cohan's Grand opera house, Chicago. There is only one company on tour and this includes William Fox's Maude Huntley, Charles W. Goodrich and George Spelvin, all of whom have appeared more than 1,000 times in the principal roles.

Not since the early days of "The Old Homestead" and "The Music Master" has an American comedy registered the tremendous box office receipts that are being harvested by "Turn to the Right" on its first visits to the smaller cities. The excellence of the play itself coupled with the fact that it has not been entrusted to a "No. 2" company, have formed a powerful combination.

"Turn to the Right" is essentially a play of fun and surprises but its story of three erring youths who are swayed from the downward path by the sweet faith of an old-fashioned mother invest it with a rich heart appeal. The cast also includes Stuart Fox, Sidney Anderson, Sylvia Field, Sam Wilson, Richard Burnett, Rita Ross, Frederic Robinson and Mike Donaghy.

For this evening the curtain will be held back for the shopping and buying.

ROMANCE of RUBBER

The Magic of Its Many Millionaires

BY PAUL BELLAMY, STAFF REPRESENTATIVE— CLEVELAND PLAIN DEALER.

Rubber Has been Akron's Fairy Godmother.

Unbelievable fortune has been built up in a few years.

Millionaires of today who yesterday were struggling business men have constructed magical palaces to live in, filled with art objects collected from the four corners of the globe.

It is an old story, this story of rubber. Those of great faith came into their reward.

RUBBER STOCK HAS BEEN MULTIPLIED BY TWELVE OVER THE ORIGINAL VALUE; NEW STOCK REISSUED AND IT IN TURN HAS DOUBLED. The enormous profits from rubber stock have been heralded over the world by every salesman.

The rubber industry was started in Akron by Akron people or those who had come to make Akron their permanent home. * * * the present mammoth industry is still pretty largely in Akron hands.

Rubber has paid its way. When the time for expansion comes, rubber either has the necessary money ready out of accumulated savings, or it puts out an issue of stock that is promptly taken up by existing stock holders.

The leaders of rubber CAN SEE NO END FOR THE DEMAND of their products. AS FAR AS THE BUSINESS EYE CAN REACH IS GROWTH, LIMITED ONLY BY THE RATE AT WHICH MANUFACTURING CAPACITY CAN BE INCREASED and by the available supply of crude rubber.

It will take us twenty years at the present rate of production, with normal increase, to reach the peak of demand" said a manufacturer, "After that, the amplified industry will have all it can do to replace annually the tremendous amount of rubber worn out in use."

Every word here applies with equal force to the rubber industry in Newark.

Particularly it urges all who are wise and provident to invest in 8% CUMULATIVE PREFERRED STOCK of the PHARIS TIRE AND RUBBER COMPANY of Newark.

AMUSEMENTS

 "Police," also rather new, and the Auditorium orchestra in a selected program. Of course for real amusement tomorrow it must be the Auditorium theater.

"Up Stairs."
 Manager Fenberg offers Mabel Normand in "Up Stairs" at his Auditorium Monday, together with the Pathé News, a two-reel Capitol comedy featuring Smiling Bill Parsons, etc. This is some program and should draw capacity crowds all day.

"My Sweetie."
 From the very first performance of Max Bloom in his new musical revue, "My Sweetie," which comes to the Auditorium next Tuesday evening, it looked like an immediate and enduring popular favorite. Audiences everywhere seem to become as demonstratively happy over the prettiness, the effing musical antics as they were overjoyed at its nimble frivolity, its bubbling beauty and the clever up-to-the-minute sketches on current events with which it abounds. Probably too, theatergoers are glad to escape from crook plays, sex dramas and musical comedies with inferior books, but whatever the cause may be, the fact is that the contagious carnival spirit of this revue communicates itself to the audiences permeating even the staid and sophisticated realms of the most blasé theatergoer.

"My Sweetie" literally exhales merriment at every turn, tossing fountains of wit and humor and showing cascades of tumbling tunes and the book fits the music almost as well as Gilbert's delicious melodies fitted the music which made Gilbert and Sullivan famous. At any rate, Bowie Woolfolk, the producer, John P. Mulgrew, the author, and Felix G. Rice, the composer, have evolved a highly individual entertainment, brimming high spirits, comedy, song, dancing and chatter. Seats now on sale.

"Back To God's Country."

nature in the soul of the girl, is created and Peter and Dolores become engaged.

Appointed by the government to take charge of an investigation among the Eskimos, Peter leaves for Ottawa, unaware that Dolores has failed and intentionally so, to place his manuscript for his book in his traveling kit.

In a hidden pool, Dolores is swimming one morning shortly after Peter's departure for Ottawa, when she is seen by Rydal, a fugitive from justice, garbed in the uniform of a member of the Canadian Police, whom he had killed while resisting arrest.

Next morning Rydal takes a decisive step. While LeBeau is a considerable distance from the house, he sends his companion out of the room. He attacks Dolores. Her screams frighten the father, who rushes to the house to find that the companion challenges his entrance. In self-defense LeBeau kills the half-breed in time to enter the house and see his daughter, exhausted trying to prevent herself from being fiendishly ravaged by the brute Rydal. Seeing his dead companion, Rydal arrests LeBeau as a murderer and states that he will take him to the authorities. LeBeau is lynched and animal pets of an orphan asylum dressed up as "wild animals."

Upstairs.
 Mabel Normand's latest Goldwyn picture, "Upstairs," by Perley Poore Sheehan, gives the popular Goldwyn star the chance to show her many admirers that she isn't a kitchen maid because she can't be a "lady." The story, which has for its background the squalor, the lechery, and the parlors of a fashionable hotel, comes to the Alhambra theater Sunday.

In unfolding the tale of the girl who makes grape fruit and ice cream soda moulds underneath the great dining room of the Muddard Hotel, Miss Normand appears in the role of a girl who for business reasons, dons overalls and hides her raven curls underneath a boy's cap. Fascinating as she is in her boy's disguise, we get a full view of the real Mabel Normand when she lifts blossoms out as a high-born lady associating with the "swells" upstairs.

Not only is Miss Normand called upon to display her talents as an efficient mental worker in the running of a mighty hotel, but she must also play the lady for an hour with all the sighs and all the camouflaged laughter which which her position seems to impose upon her simple understanding.

His Bridal Night.
 What would you do if your twin sister ran away with your husband on your bridal night? Well, that's just what happened to Vi Playfair, but it was mostly her own fault.

The night before Vi's wedding to Joe Damore, she tells her twin sister, Tiny, that she is going out to see more little lark with Bent Trevett. But before Vi has an opportunity to meet Bent, Tiny goes to him and Bent believes that he is kissing his own Vi.

The next day, immediately after the wedding ceremony, Bent tells Vi that she belongs to him as he is the only one who really loves her, and that Joe is bullying her and has stolen her from him. When Joe comes into his wife's room a few minutes later, she is nothing like a sweet little bride ought to be.

Fall of "pen" laughs and thrills. "His Bridal Night," in which Select Pictures presents Alvin Brady, can be seen Monday and Tuesday at the Alhambra theater.

GRAND.
 Mitchell Lewis.

"Faith of the Strong," in which Select Pictures presents Mitchell Lewis, will be seen at the Grand theater on Sunday and Monday for the first time in this city.

The plot of the story concerns the experiences of a typical French-Canadian woodsman whose passion for recklessness is overshadowed by the great faith which comes to him through the love of a woman of the North.

Paul La Rue, the character portrayed in this attraction by Mitchell Lewis, is the leading figure of the lawless gang which holds sway over the lumber camp of Louis Roy. The other side of the settlement is under the watchful care of a kind-hearted minister, La Rue presents the minister's attempt to give him counsel, and he threatens to burn their church.

In addition will be shown an exceptionally intense and clever picture "Bound and Gagged" with George B. Seitz and Marguerite Courtot in the leading roles. Also "Fatty Arbuckle in 'Fatty the Ice Man'."

GEN.
 Theda Bara.

Theda Bara, the foremost of all screen vampires, undoubtedly has the greatest role of her career in "La Belle Russe," adapted from the famous Belasco stage success, in which she will be presented by William Fox on Monday at the Gen theater. Miss Bara will be seen in a dual role. She portrays both Fleurette, the good sister, and La Belle Russe, the wicked twin, in this great melodrama. In fact, the biggest scene of the play comes when Miss Bara, as Fleurette, confronts herself as La Belle Russe.

Miss Bara's career has been an unbroken success. She first attracted attention in the Fox production, "A Fool There Was," and was quickly made a star. Since then she has appeared in more than thirty Fox features as star.

LYRIC.

Montague Love, the internationally famous character actor, is scheduled to appear at the Lyric theater on Sunday in his latest world picture, "Thruout the Tolls." This is a striking, vivid, vital picture and gives this splendid actor great opportunities for the display of his talents.

There will also be a specially arranged concert next week comes "Gilberts Honeymoon Girls." Tonight is the last appearance of Zarrow's Nationals.

First Cost

We can't compete for battery business on price.

Willard service does cost more, so does a Willard Battery. But isn't it true that if you hire a real engineer, or architect, or contractor, or carpenter, or machanic, or doctor, or lawyer, that it saves in the long run?

We're in business to do the job right the first time—and that costs more than to fix it so it has to be done over again soon after.

When we sell a Willard Battery with Threaded Rubber Insulation we charge more for it, but it doesn't come back for re-insulation with a big bill to you. It stays on the job till it has delivered all the service you bought—and generally a lot more than you'd believe possible.

SCENE FROM "MY SWEETIE," AT THE AUDITORIUM THEATER NEXT TUESDAY EVENING.

mates of Dolores LeBeau, who lives with her father in the wilds of Canada, loving the God-bestowed beauty of the woodlands and lavishing her affection upon two score semi-savage beasts who had been taught, by the sympathy and bravery of her nature, to love her.

Beasts and mountain lions, foxes, wild cats and raccoons, all respond to the caresses of the kind-hearted Dolores, who has grown up among them, absorbing the knowledge that kindness to others, even animals, is reflected back to the donor. Her worldly education is given her by her father, a trapper, whose love for nature had led him to forsake the city life for the hard but wholesome existence in God's own country.

How was this girl to know that on another side of the world rugged men were beating and lashing an animal she would have loved? How was she to know that over in the Arctic zone there was an animal descended from a generation which had been mistreated? She was yet to meet the most impor-forced to set out by Rydal, while Dolores follows.

Instead of marching LeBeau to prison, as he had said, Rydal shoves the handcuffed father down a high cliff and into the rapids. Dolores, not far behind, sees the murder and leaps into the stream to save her father.

This feature comes to Manager Fenberg's Auditorium for 4 days starting next Wednesday.

ALHAMBRA

Jinx.

Mabel Normand has proved herself an acrobat. In "Jinx," her latest Goldwyn picture, which is shown at the Alhambra theater tonight last times, Miss Normand burlesques a series of circus stunts. She appears in loose-fitting tights and a pair of gorgeously flowered corsets trimmed in reds, and walks a tightrope over a wooly moth-eaten mattress. Then she conducts a circus of her own with all the animal pets of an orphan asylum dressed up as "wild animals."

Upstairs.

Mabel Normand's latest Goldwyn picture, "Upstairs," by Perley Poore Sheehan, gives the popular Goldwyn star the chance to show her many admirers that she isn't a kitchen maid because she can't be a "lady." The story, which has for its background the squalor, the lechery, and the parlors of a fashionable hotel, comes to the Alhambra theater Sunday.

In unfolding the tale of the girl who makes grape fruit and ice cream soda moulds underneath the great dining room of the Muddard Hotel, Miss Normand appears in the role of a girl who for business reasons, dons overalls and hides her raven curls underneath a boy's cap. Fascinating as she is in her boy's disguise, we get a full view of the real Mabel Normand when she lifts blossoms out as a high-born lady associating with the "swells" upstairs.

Not only is Miss Normand called upon to display her talents as an efficient mental worker in the running of a mighty hotel, but she must also play the lady for an hour with all the sighs and all the camouflaged laughter which which her position seems to impose upon her simple understanding.

What would you do if your twin sister ran away with your husband on your bridal night? Well, that's just what happened to Vi Playfair, but it was mostly her own fault.

The night before Vi's wedding to Joe Damore, she tells her twin sister, Tiny, that she is going out to see more little lark with Bent Trevett. But before Vi has an opportunity to meet Bent, Tiny goes to him and Bent believes that he is kissing his own Vi.

The next day, immediately after the wedding ceremony, Bent tells Vi that she belongs to him as he is the only one who really loves her, and that Joe is bullying her and has stolen her from him. When Joe comes into his wife's room a few minutes later, she is nothing like a sweet little bride ought to be.

Fall of "pen" laughs and thrills. "His Bridal Night," in which Select Pictures presents Alvin Brady, can be seen Monday and Tuesday at the Alhambra theater.

GRAND.

Mitchell Lewis.

"Faith of the Strong," in which Select Pictures presents Mitchell Lewis, will be seen at the Grand theater on Sunday and Monday for the first time in this city.

The plot of the story concerns the experiences of a typical French-Canadian woodsman whose passion for recklessness is overshadowed by the great faith which comes to him through the love of a woman of the North.

Paul La Rue, the character portrayed in this attraction by Mitchell Lewis, is the leading figure of the lawless gang which holds sway over the lumber camp of Louis Roy. The other side of the settlement is under the watchful care of a kind-hearted minister, La Rue presents the minister's attempt to give him counsel, and he threatens to burn their church.

In addition will be shown an exceptionally intense and clever picture "Bound and Gagged" with George B. Seitz and Marguerite Courtot in the leading roles. Also "Fatty Arbuckle in 'Fatty the Ice Man'."

GEN.

Theda Bara.

Theda Bara, the foremost of all screen vampires, undoubtedly has the greatest role of her career in "La Belle Russe," adapted from the famous Belasco stage success, in which she will be presented by William Fox on Monday at the Gen theater. Miss Bara will be seen in a dual role. She portrays both Fleurette, the good sister, and La Belle Russe, the wicked twin, in this great melodrama. In fact, the biggest scene of the play comes when Miss Bara, as Fleurette, confronts herself as La Belle Russe.

Miss Bara's career has been an unbroken success. She first attracted attention in the Fox production, "A Fool There Was," and was quickly made a star. Since then she has appeared in more than thirty Fox features as star.

LYRIC.

Montague Love, the internationally famous character actor, is scheduled to appear at the Lyric theater on Sunday in his latest world picture, "Thruout the Tolls." This is a striking, vivid, vital picture and gives this splendid actor great opportunities for the display of his talents.

There will also be a specially arranged concert next week comes "Gilberts Honeymoon Girls." Tonight is the last appearance of Zarrow's Nationals.

CLAIMS HONOR FOR GEORGIAN

Savannah Newspaper Asserts That Elias Howe Was Not Inventor of the Sewing Machine.

The centenary of the birth of Elias Howe, the modest Yankee who invented the sewing machine, took place on June 9. There was no extended observance of the day, observes Hartford Courant, yet it was Howe who took a good deal of the drudgery out of the lives of millions of American women. He also increased the power of his fellow men to produce garments and other material that formerly needed the patient handwork of individuals.

But it is interesting to observe, in connection with the anniversary, that the Savannah News undertakes the rather hopeless task of trying to convince its readers that it was not Howe, but a Georgian, Francis R. Goulding, who constructed and operated the first sewing machine. This paper says that this man, a Presbyterian preacher living in Liberty county, married a Savannah girl and then began work on a sewing machine in order that he might save his fair wife much hard work. Alleging this was long before Howe patented his machine, and also that Goulding never patented his, they try to show his motives were purely altruistic and not commercial.

It all sounds good, but it will take considerable "space" in the Georgia newspapers to convince the world that Goulding takes the prize.

MONKEY CHAIN CALLED MYTH

Recent Travelers in South America Explain Probable Origin of Story Once Implicitly Believed.

An interesting article by Prof. E. W. Gudge, in a recent issue of Natural History, deals with the time-honored story on which most of us were brought up that South American monkeys are in the habit of crossing alligator-infested streams by linking their tails and legs to form a living bridge. Pictures of this feat once figured extensively in the school geographies, and Professor Gudge reproduced such a picture from a Fourth reader published as late as 1897. The story was first told, so far as known, by the Jesuit priest Padre Jose Acosta in a work published in 1589. Several later writers have repeated the tale. The first person to dispute its veracity was Baron Humboldt. Recently explorers of South America, when they mention the story at all, express skepticism. Finally, Messrs. Leo E. Miller and George K. Chierrie of the American Museum of Natural History, who have done so much traveling and collecting in South America, have suggested to Professor Gudge a plausible origin for such tales. They think that the story of the "monkey bridge" has come about through observation of a procession of monkeys crossing a ravine or stream on a pendant liana. —Scientific American.

Why Americans Lost Contract.

"Speaking of Chinese railroads reminds me of the failure of an American manufacturer to obtain a contract for locomotives because his European competitors made a more careful study of Chinese peculiarities," writes Lynn W. Meekins in the Scientific American. "One locomotive was ordered from each of the competing companies. In every respect save one the American product was unmistakably superior. However, it had been painted black before shipment from the works, and on the way across the Pacific it became more or less rusted. Its appearance, therefore, was far less attractive than that of the European locomotives, which were painted in accordance with Chinese preference, and had been touched up by the manufacturers' agents after arriving in China. Don't get your colors mixed if you want to sell goods to the Chinese."

What's a Husband, Anyway?

"Did the fair defendant introduce any character witnesses?" "A dozen at least." "And did they say anything good about her?" "They all swore she was kind to her noodle."

HIGH SCHOOL FIVE DEFEATS Y. M. C. A.

Last night at the Y. M. C. A. the high school basketball team outclassed the Senior Y. M. C. A. quintette by a score of 30 to 16. While the Y men were fast in spurts it took the Hi boys to play consistent ball and grab the long end of the scoring.

High School. Senior Y.
Orr, I. f.; Goodwin, I. f.
Wilson, c. f.; Howard, b. f.;
Kelly, c. f.; DeFrantz, c. f.;
Stowell, I. g.; Beard, r. g.
Baker, r. g.; Moody, r. g.

TROPHY CUP SHOWN IN PASSMAN WINDOW

The McKenzie trophy cup, to be given to the winners of the Industrial Basketball league at the end of the season, is now on display in the window of James Passman, the electrician, in the Y. M. C. A. building. Along with the trophy cup is a cartoonist's display of "crazy kids" to show the relative standing of the eight teams in the Industrial league.

It has been estimated that 100,000,000 rubber stamps are in use in the United States.

MULLEN STORE ROBBED OF SMALL CHANGE

Patrolman Virgil Dush in making his rounds last night discovered iron bars wrenched from the rear windows of the Maybold shoe store and the Mullen grocery in Third street and the glass broken in the Maybold window.
He replaced the bars and early this morning an examination developed that nothing was missing at the May-bold store but that $3 in dimes and nickels had been taken from the cash register at the Mullen store and two half dollars from a purse in one of the drawers. It is not known whether any stock is missing.

The robbery was evidently committed after the last round of the patrolman, and by some one who knew his hours on that beat. It was probably the work of amateurs, but there is no clue. Police Chief Sheridan has a key to a brake shoe at his office which was used to pry off the iron bars. The owner can have same by calling and proving property. The chief advises all store owners to carefully examine their bars, doors and windows as this is the season of the year when the sneak thieves and burglars get busy.

Wall Street.
New York, Dec. 13.—Yesterday's late rally in the stock market was extended at the opening of today's session, stocks and metals leading the further recovery with shipping. Oils were hesitant but soon rallied on the strength shown by Mexican Petroleum.
Equipments and motors specialties were included among the stronger issues of the first half hour.

Probably as a result of the partial rallies in foreign exchange and also because of yesterday's sharp recovery in call money, today's brief session of the stock exchange was attended by a general covering movement and moderate buying for the long account.
Among motors, oils, steels, equipments and shippings, gains extended from one to six points. Strength was shown also by motor specialties, tobaccos, textiles and paper shares with firmness in metals. Aside from Canadian Pacific which made further recovery from its recent weakness, running figures importantly in the dealings. The closing was strong. Sales approximated 450, 000 shares.

Chicago Grain Review.
Chicago, Dec. 13.—Unexpected bearish aspects of the government crop report led to declines today in the price of corn. Opening prices, which ranged from 5 1/8 to 1 5/8c lower, with Jan., 1 1/8 1/2 to 1 3/4, and May $1.31 to 1 1/8 1/2, were bid off by a slight rally, and then by a decided first setback.
Oats reflected the weakness of corn.
After opening 1 1/8 to 3 1/2c lower, including 1 1/8c to 1 3/4c, they were bid off by a slight rally, and then by a decided first setback.
In provisions as well as in cereals, the bears had the advantage. Firmness in the hog market was only a temporary prop.

NEWARK'S BIG STORE

SAYS "GIVE HER
A HOOVER AND YOU GIVE HER THE BEST"

$6.25 Reserves a H-O-O-V-E-R DOWN FOR CHRISTMAS—IF YOU ACT AT ONCE

WE promise Christmas time delivery on Hoovers ordered now. A $6.25 deposit insures "Her" happy receipt of this wonderful gift—a lifetime reminder of your loving consideration. Pay the remainder monthly in 1920. Do not delay decision! Knowledge of the Hoover's superiority has spread so widely, due to the talk of enthusiastic possessors that demand has outstripped supply. The Hoover factory—the largest maker of electric cleaners in the world—although producing three as many Hoovers as a year ago, is swamped with orders.

We ordered these Hoovers, which are due to arrive before Christmas, many months ago. Hence we are fortunate in being able to offer Christmas-day deliveries.

When you give her a Hoover you give her the only combined electric carpet beater, electric carpet sweeper and electric vacuum cleaner on the market—and a nap-straightener, a color brightener and rug life-prolonger besides! That is why "The Hoover" enjoys such great popularity—because it's MORE than a plain vacuum cleaner.

Reserve a Hoover today—and delight "Her" Christmas morning. Only $6.25 this year—the rest next year.
